

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT CALCUTTA

LEADERSHIP & TEAM BUILDING

Programme Director:
Prof. Chetan Joshi

Programme Dates:
December 11 - 15, 2023

Programme Venue:
MDC, IIM Calcutta

OBJECTIVES

Leadership simply stated, entails fulfillment of responsibilities and achievement of organisational goals by managers in an organisation. Given the nature and complexities of tasks and responsibilities, and the challenges faced by modern organisations in the emerging business environment, managers must learn to work effectively with teams of colleagues and subordinates. They must do so both internally and externally and at top, middle and lower levels. Leadership and team building are intertwined as one integral focus of this programme. This programme will help participants develop their leadership potential and skills alongside skills in team building.

PEDAGOGY

Concept sessions, diagnostic instruments, group activity through breakout rooms, and case study discussions.

WHO MAY ATTEND

The Programme as such is useful for all managers with 5 - 7 years of experience, irrespective of their functions, hierarchical position and business involvement - be it in the private/public sector organisations, multinational companies or government organisations. We believe that an organisation will get an optimum return from this Programme by sponsoring a team of 2 - 4 managers who have responsibility for managing a department, division, business group, or the entire organisation.

KEY TOPICS

The programme contents are focused in two specific modules dealing with the theme of leadership and team building.

■ Module 1: Building Leadership Potential and Skills

This module will help participants to become aware of their own needs, perceptions and feelings and how the same affects or is affected by others' needs, perceptions and feelings. Participants thus become aware about the antecedents and consequences of their interpersonal styles.

Individuals will learn to differentiate functions and responsibilities at different levels and in different situations internal or external to the organisation. Individual participants will diagnose their leadership styles and why the same is or is not appropriate in different situations. Managers will also learn about the specific style they need to use contingent on the decision making situation.

■ Module 2: Team Building

Leadership effectiveness is closely linked with team effectiveness. How a leader emerges in a work group will be the focus of this module. An observation of leadership behaviours is a vital source of information for selection of future leaders. What roles are played by members in team situation will be observed and identified. This module will also cover small group processes such as communication, conflict resolution and decision making in teams within organisations.

PROGRAMME DIRECTOR

Dr. Chetan Joshi is a Professor in the Organizational Behavior area group at IIMC. He holds an MBA from University of Roorkee and a doctorate in management from Richard Ivey Business School, Western University (formerly University of Western Ontario), Canada. His award winning research has been presented at international conferences such as the Administrative Sciences Association of Canada, Society for Industrial and Organisational Psychology, International Congress of Psychology and the Academy of Management. He has developed simulations and exercises which have been showcased at the annual conferences of the OBTS Teaching Society for Management Educators. His co-authored case studies and teaching notes are available from Harvard Business School Publishing.

In addition to Dr. Chetan Joshi, other faculty member(s) with expertise in the areas of Leadership and Team Work may also teach in the programme.

PARTICIPANTS' FEEDBACK

When you come for a managerial program, engagement is something which one looks for. The same has been provided to the required level. The program has been a right blend of experience and academia. The personal touch which has been provided by the faculty, the detail of each and everything they do speaks a lot about the institution and its faculty. All in all a great program.

My experience in the program was very good. They have a well-researched teaching style; teaching by making us experience the situation and thus the learnings are coming from within us. They are born out of our own experiences, our team's situation and experiences. The faculty is so erudite; they have done an excellent job. Our scores show that we have really changed for the better and in better ways.

It was an excellent learning experience for me in the last 5 days. The way we were taught; contents of the course go to the heart.
