Sports Management

INTRODUCTION:

India has a rich history of sport with many champions across various sports like Hockey, Cricket, Tennis, Badminton, Athletics etc. However, India is still not seen as a sports superpower at the global level, albeit having a strong presence bordering on dominance in a few sports. In the recent years there has been a renewed emphasis on sports by both the Central and State Governments and also private organizations to ensure that India makes its mark at the international sporting stage. This programme on Sports Management addresses the need for providing inputs for better management of sport to those already involved in sport and to those who would like to be involved in sport in India.

OBJECTIVES:

- Understanding the sports landscape in India,
- Understanding the problems associated with managing sport in India,
- Understanding best-in-class solutions from around the world to issues in managing sport,
- Understanding relevant concepts and frameworks from the field of management and be able to readily apply these concepts to managing sport.

KEY TOPICS:

- Understanding the Sports Industry in India
- Managing the Sports Organization
- Managing Sports teams and Athletes
- Legal aspects in sports
- Gamification and Leagues
- Sports Marketing

PEDAGOGY:

The programme will draw on current academic research, case studies, and experience sharing of best practices from across the world. The programme will be delivered through a mix of lectures, cases, simulations, role-plays, and in-class exercises. Programme faculty will include full-time faculty of IIM Calcutta and subject-matter experts from the Industry.

WHO MAY ATTEND:

- Working professionals in organizations that work in the area of sports management.
- Officials of various state and central government organizations who handle sports / sports related portfolios.
- Working professionals from different domains / industries who are interested in being part of the sports management fraternity.
