

AMIT KUMAR - Director & Chief Supply Chain Officer - GE South Asia

Amit Kumar is the Director and Chief Supply Chain Officer for all GE Industrial businesses (Power & Water, Oil & Gas, Transportation, Aviation and Energy Management).

As Supply chain leader, he drives supply chain excellence, talent development, strategic & operational leadership across entire gamut of supply chain functions: Manufacturing, Operations, Sourcing, Quality, Projects, Programs/transfers, and supplier development, EHS, Logistics & International Trade Compliance related to Supply Chain.

Under his leadership a team of over 800+ professionals work in supply chain spread across various locations in India managing 10 Manufacturing plants. The global & domestic sourcing team in conjunction with global supply chain teams plays a key role in developing buy & makes growth from India for all GE businesses.

Prior to GE, he worked for 17+ years in Manufacturing, Operations, Sourcing & supply chain roles in various leadership capacities for Timken India, Eaton Fluid Power India and Honeywell India.

Amit holds Bachelor of Engineering in Mechanical.

Amit is also active in key forums as member of “CII national committee of capital goods & engineering, “American chamber’s supply chain & logistics committee” & “Automotive components manufacturers association of India”.